

CGEM in with ACOMS

Rethink the framework conditions to attract Moroccan talent abroad.

Searching for synergies

The symbiose of Swiss talents and Moroccan leadership

Thank you to the

Moroccan government and to our ambassador HE Azoulay and his team for this opportunity.

Thank you to the CGEM,

to Mr. President Chakib Alj and his team for coming to meet the members of ACOMS

Connecting our members with Moroccan leaders was also an opportunity for connecting our young talents with emerging opportunities in 🇲🇦

One of key notes of Mr. Alj's speech was:

The current Moroccan strategy to formalise fast-track mechanism for investments.

Thank you to all our members for their presence and for the beautiful smiles they wear during this event

Yes 🇲🇦 talents in 🇨🇭 are also girls

The increase in the number of 🇲🇦 female talents in 🇨🇭 breaks the stereotype .

The continued support of founding members of ACOMS like here Prof. Elyazid Moubsine and Prof. Salahdine Qanadli is essential for our young talents

The continued presence of our experts

Team spirit is important and intrinsic to what we do

Respect, collaboration, ..., friendship, ...

Our approach for the next steps

Identifying how to bring Swiss expertise to Moroccan Talent and opportunities

- Establishing communication
- Identifying common goals & key enablers
- Building diverse teams

Successful partnership rely on mastering the complex set of interdependencies between countries/people and initiatives/projects.
